On Saturday September 24th, citizens of Chicago will come together on the International Day of Climate Action to call for a roll out of current solutions to the climate crisis. Roll Beyond Coal is an event that will bring Chicagoans together to create a local movement to build clean, climate smart transportation and energy options that are good for ...our health and planet. Our event is one of many planned worldwide calling on leaders and corporations, those who have previously denied or moved too slowly to address climate change, to stop holding up progress and to get moving now to work with us to solve the climate crisis. Check <http://www.chicagoradicalendar.org> for event details.

CPS Service-Learning Initiative Calendar 2011-2012

11am - 2pm Understanding Adulthood and Creating Partnerships with Youth

Where: Chicago Freedom Schools Center for Social Change, 719 S. State St., Ste. 3N

Description:

Adulthood is a form of oppression that privileges adults over youth and children. It perpetuates age-based stereotypes that limit the potential for intergenerational power-building. When people practice adulthood, young people are viewed as objects instead of resources. This training will help adults learn more about how to dismantle adulthood culturally, institutionally, interpersonally, and personally in order to create healthy partnerships with youth. Participants will be challenged to learn what they can do to be an ally to young people in schools and organizations. Pre-registration is required. Complete the registration for the Adulthood training online here. This workshop is intended for adults who are working with youth in schools, neighborhoods, organizations, and places of worship. Please contact Hilda Franco at hilda@chicagofreedomschool.org with any questions. <http://www.chicagofreedomschool.org/>

9am - 4pm Freedom Riders: Democracy in Action Full-Day Workshop

Where: TBD

Description:

Facing History and Ourselves From May until December 1961, more than 400 black and white Americans risked their lives by simply traveling together through the Deep South. Deliberately violating Jim Crow laws, the Freedom Riders' belief in non-violent activism was sorely tested as mob violence and bitter racism greeted them along the way. Facing History is an educational partner for this PBS American Experience film, and workshop participants will learn more about southern segregation laws and models of political resistance during the civil rights movement. Register online at <http://www.facehistory.org>

Two Who Dared: Story of American Rescue During the Holocaust After-School Workshop

Where: TBD

Description:

Waitstill Sharp, a Unitarian minister from Massachusetts, and his wife Martha, a social worker, helped feed and shelter thousands of refugees and assisted anti-Nazi dissidents and Jews as they escaped to safety, first in Nazi-occupied Czechoslovakia and later in France. The Sharps were recognized as Righteous Among the Nations at Yad Vashem—the highest recognition accorded by the state of Israel to non-Jews who risked their lives to save Jews during World War II. The Sharps' compelling story, told in the film Two Who Dared, reveals a largely unknown chapter of Holocaust history and provides a new perspective on America's relationship to it. This film is an important addition to Facing History's collection of classroom resources that focus on rescue and resistance during the Holocaust.

9am - 4pm Not in Our Town Full-Day Workshop

Where: TBD

Description:

As immigrant populations expand in communities across the country, Not In Our Town: Light In the Darkness documents an issue that impacts students, schools, and entire communities with increasing frequency. The film provides a lens for considering both the negative reactions that can lead to tragic events when ignored, and the positive outcomes that are possible in communities that work to heal divisions and embrace all their residents. Workshop participants will explore ways to use these resources to develop lessons pertaining to U.S. immigration issues throughout our history, and encourage students to reflect on their capacity to confront bigotry and hatred, and create more inclusive communities.
